Fabric Recycling Process

We work with recycled fabrics that are made from natural fibers attained from a mix of recycled consumer textile waste. The Use of recycling fabric represents how nature and natural things help to reuse themselves.

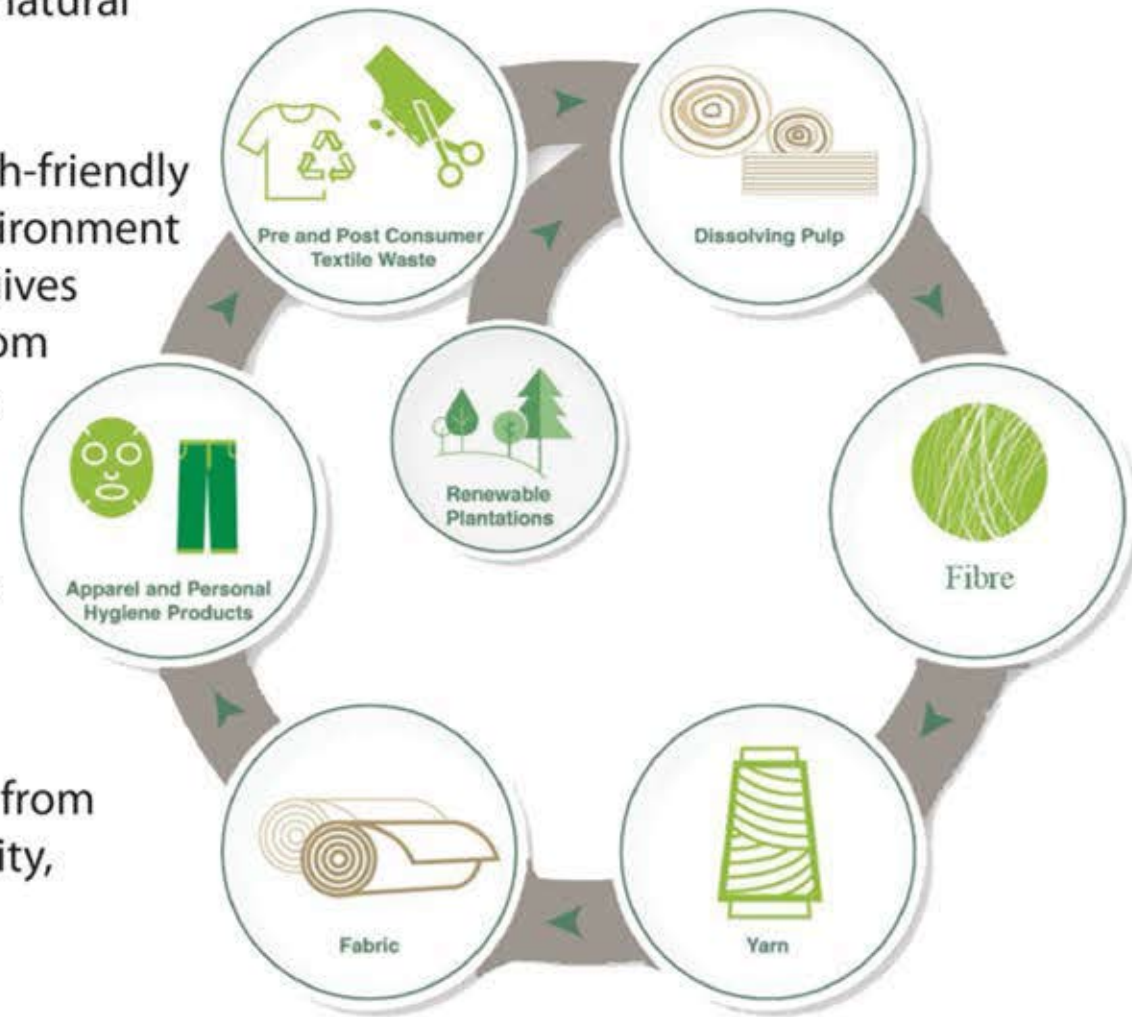

Recycle Fabric made of earth-friendly fibers. These earth-friendly fibres that help to make recyclable fabric allow the environment to lower greenhouse gas emissions. This certification gives assurance the recycled yarn or other fabrics are free from harmful elements. Our focus is to connect the business with consumers or give strong positive impact on the environment. There are many fibres that are made of the natural process like wool, Cellulosic Fibres, cotton, hemp fabric, virgin fibre etc.

Recycled shoddy wool Fibers

Shoddy wool is the name given to woollen yarn made from recycled wool fabric. The fabric is often of inferior quality, manufactured wholly or partly from recycled wool

Recycled Cotton Linen Fabrics

Recycled cotton is made of converting cotton fabric into cotton fibre by using waste cotton, leftovers of cotton production or from second-hand clothing.

Designing is not just a profession for some people it's art or passion for those who dreamed to make the world more stylish and ravishing.

We are the part of these kinds of team members who dreamend to change the outlook by these imagination and designing. Meet our dedicated or hardworking team members. who always try to do something new and challenging for themselves.

Sanna our ardent and stalwart fashion designer who start her expedition to design prehistoric medievals after reading the book "The medieval tailor's assistant". She is curious to know about the styles and idea of artist's impression to design medievals. She started reading more and more about the medievals. And start to work on it with her team members. She is not only a medieval lover. She has also some special kind of affection for the fabrics. We feel that her passion for middle age dresses is also because of the fabric. She shared her thoughts with us. Sana said she is curiously wants to know, how this normal woollen, cotton, yarn and tweed fabric are designed into attractive and demanding renaissance costumes, cloaks and Viking clothing?

The world of fabrics and design has always fascinated her. She said before work on medievals she always thing that gaudy, garish or loud dresses are considered as middle age British costumes. She even did not consider wool or yarn fabric for costumes manufacturing. She found herself more connected with the culture. While working on Viking clothing she feels herself as in that period and working as a tailor on it. We will not understand what she feels while working or what is her thought process. But one thing that we strongly feel is her excitement or enthusiasm. We ensure you that Sanna and her team will do excellent work. The team is always ready in the field of design with their weapons. They do magical work with their needle or threads.
